Although Mr. and Mrs. Smith had no children of their own they raised Lenora Spicer from childhood, taking her when she was only eleven years old. She is now a talented musician and expects to become a music teacher. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have always attended the White Lake Presbyterian church. Mr. Smith is a Democrat. He now owns 215 acres of land of an original 220. Waite Brothers. The wide-awake, enterprising and progressive city of Pontiac, Michigan, whose population has shown a more than forty per cent, increase within the last ten years, has many merchants and other business men of which any community might be proud. They represent the best features of present-day business methods in this country, and these involve readiness for all requirements of their trade, strict integrity in every transaction, and thorough knowledge of the business in hand in every way. Among the up-to-date firms that dignify and adorn the business life of the city and give it character and standing in the business world throughout a large extent of country outside, that of Waite Brothers is in the front rank. These gentlemen are leading dry goods merchants in Pontiac, and have been engaged in their present undertaking since 1896, when they bought the establishment and business from J. S. Stockwell, who founded the house in 1881 and conducted it to the time he sold it to them. The firm is composed of Elwin Livingston and Lester Edwin Waite, twin brothers whose signatures are Elwin L. and L. Edwin Waite, signatures well known in business circles in and out of Pontiac, and always good for the face value to whatever they are...
