War Stories-- Down on Stanford's Farm A version of Stanford University's History You have never read! Over one hundred years of campus life, researched and written by Captain of Police Investigations, Raoul K. Niemeyer (Retired) While some content may be objectionable due to violence, including murders, rapes and bad behavior (certainly not for children, the straight laced or faint of heart!), the majority of this read is historical with a humorous slant. Life for Stanford students has always been a unique experience: Tradition, the bitter Stanford-Cal rivalry, fraternity misbehavior, the protests and riots during the 60s-70s, huge events such as Super Bowl XIX, World Cup and Olympic Soccer, the Gorbachev and Queen Elizabeth visits plus many more, are described herein.
