The Wall Marlen Haushofer

“I can allow myself to write the truth; all the people for whom I have lied throughout my life are dead...” writes the heroine of Marlen Haushofer’s The Wall, a quite ordinary, unnamed middle-aged woman who awakens to find she is the last living human being. Surmising her solitude is the result of a too successful military experiment, she begins the terrifying work of not only survival, but self-renewal. The Wall is at once a simple and moving talk — of potatoes and beans, of hoping for a calf, of counting matches, of forgetting the taste of sugar and the use of one’s name — and a disturbing meditation on 20th century history.

Sharon Scott:

Exactly why? Because this The Wall is an unordinary book that the inside of the reserve waiting for you to snap it but latter it will zap you with the secret this inside. Reading this book alongside it was fantastic author who write the book in such amazing way makes the content inside of easier to understand, entertaining approach but still convey the meaning totally. So , it is good for you for not hesitating having this anymore or you going to regret it. This phenomenal book will give you a lot of advantages than the other book have such as help improving your ability and your critical thinking means. So , still want to hold up having that book? If I were being you I will go to the book store hurriedly.

Daniel Love:

Playing with family in a park, coming to see the ocean world or hanging out with friends is thing that usually you will have done when you have spare time, then why you don't try matter that really opposite from that. A single activity that make you not sense tired but still relaxing, trilling like on roller coaster you already been ride on and with addition info. Even you love The Wall, you are able to enjoy both. It is good combination right, you still need to miss it? What kind of hang type is it? Oh come on its mind hangout men. What? Still don't obtain it, oh come on its known as reading friends.
