Sharee Evans has been bestselling author Tristan Jacobsen's assistant for over two years now. She knew from the get-go that she would have a hard time not falling for her charming boss. Then again, how is a woman supposed to resist the lethal combination of a sharp mind, sharper blue eyes, and a body that begs to be looked at? Still, Sharee has managed to keep her monumental crush to herself and be the best assistant Tristan has ever had. She only openly manifests her admiration for his imagination, so fervid to almost seem out of this world.

Tristan's horror stories come alive on the page. They tell of dark terrors that the mind has some trouble grasping, but none imagining, thanks to Tristan's gripping words. Little does Sharee know that her boss lives some of those horrors every month, and precisely when the full moon strikes...
