El camino de El Dorado (Novelas nº 4) (Spanish Edition) Arturo Uslar Pietri

El camino de El Dorado es una de las novelas de Arturo Uslar Pietri que retrata una buena parte del continente americano: inicia en Perú con Lope de Aguirre y sus marañones en búsqueda de la ciudad mítica de El Dorado así como su viaje por el río Marañón hasta llegar a Venezuela, desembarcando en la isla de Margarita. En ella, Lope de Aguirre comienza con su toma de territorio mediante el miedo y la astucia.

Esta es una obra que muestra, como algunos pudieran considerar, uno de los primeros intento de independencia americana respecto al yugo español. Su personaje principal, hijo de españoles, es quien se atreve a levantar su espada contra la corona. Hombre educado, aguerrido, religioso y violento, en él converge todo el orgullo y la osadía de quien pudiera llamarse a sí mismo "Peregrino", "Traidor" e incluso "Príncipe".
