Excerpt from Peerage and Pedigree, Vol. 1: Studies in Peerage Law, and Family History

Of the two chief subjects which are dealt with in these volumes - Peerage law and family history - the former occupies most of the first, and the latter most of the second. The opening article, however, illustrates their close connexion, for the claim of Richard Bertie to his wife's ancient barony raised, in addition to a question of law, that of his own origin.
