Four Girls . . . One Island In order to earn a seat on the ruling council of Mt. Olympus, four girls must undergo a survival challenge on a deserted island. On Mythikas they will learn their strengths and weaknesses and face their greatest fears. The journey begun in Mythikas Island Book One: Diana continues with eighteen-year-old Persephone, granddaughter of a mysterious healer, who is caught between two worlds - Titan versus Heliot. Both sides want to use her to further their cause. All Persephone wants is to be left alone to practice healing. The situation on Mythikas worsens when Persephone decides to play into her cousins' superstitions to gain their respect. As mutual suspicion and distrust boil and seethe, so does the volcano at the center of Mythikas Island. . . No Second Chances.
