"Love Story" is the title of a song written and recorded by American country artist Taylor Swift. It is the first single from her second studio album, 2008's Fearless. The song was released in September 2008, and by November it reached the top of the Billboard country chart for two weeks, becoming her third Billboard Number One. It also became her first top five hit on the Billboard Hot 100. "Love Story" is Swift's first international single, venturing into other markets outside North America and Australia. The single is also Swift's first to receive remixes for the clubs. As of the week ending February 8, 2009, "Love Story" had been downloaded more than 4 million times, making it the most downloaded country song in history and is the best-selling country song in the United States surpassing LeAnn Rimes' "How Do I Live" by 1 million copies. In addition, "Love Story" became the first country crossover recording to hit number one on the Nielsen BDS CHR/Top 40 chart. The song is part of the track list for Now That's What I Call Country Volume 2. This song is featured in Band Hero. This is the sheet music for that song.
