Sex Magic and Attempted Murder by Michael Meadows: Close protection is difficult when the woman you're guarding is off-limits... and getting closer by the second. Noah Walker's job is... complicated. It says "Bodyguard" on the door, and certainly he provides protection services, for the right price. But more than that, he is a vessel. Magic is real. And the source of magical power is lovemaking. But it's not as simple as it seems. Compatibility is a key factor, and it has to be just right. Jane Everett is all wrong--but Noah never could turn down a woman in need. So for now, the name on the door is about right. But with her looks, and her eagerness, for how much longer?
Into The Wild by Dalia Daudelin: The King of the forest wants your magic. Will you give it to him? Danika is good at her job, but her life is boring. She feels stifled and uncreative, slaving away to make websites for clients that don't appreciate her. When her boss's copier catches on fire and sends the whole building home early, she has to pass through a huge forest. Danika realizes she left an unfinished website on her computer in the building that's up in flames and panics! While trying to calm down, Danika wanders into the woods and passes through an unseen barrier. The world that Danika is forced into is one where all women are witches and their powers are taken... but only through the act of sex. Will the King of the mysterious tribe that captures her let her go? Or will he keep her as his sex slave for good?
Breeding The Witch by Dalia Daudelin: A curse cast on a child leaves her womb barren, with her only hope of having a child resting in one man. The only problem is, she has no idea who that man is. She must use her magic to seduce as many men as possible. When Jack wanders into her store, she knows he will be the first man she tries to seduce. He's handsome and has a great body, and with some potion slipped into a drink she rides him hard.
