Using the parable of the four soils as a guide, this Lenten devotional reflects on the soil of our soul. Is our soil hard? Rocky? Weedy? Or have we cultivated soil that allows the seeds God sows to produce a wonderful harvest? The devotion focuses on cultivating good soil where the seeds sown can flourish. From the back cover: We pray that by using this guide as a daily practice God will move us in such a way that together, we will embody the life of Christ. This daily devotion is intended to be a gentle reminder of God's love for you; a love that is deeper than any you've ever known. As you read these pages over the Lenten season, may you find yourself closer to the Risen King, reassured in your Faith Journey, and renewed in the Hope and Love of God.
