Colonization: A Global History Marc Ferro

This is an extremely wide-ranging and interdisciplinary survey of colonization from its origins to the post-colonial world. Original and lively, it offers the student:

- * a wide focus featuring Africa, America, Asia, Australia, Europe, Japan and the USSR
- * an interpretation drawn from cultural and social history, with sections on myth, literature, film and philosophy
- * constant reference to implications for the present world situation
- * a comprehensive synthesis of the background, context and expansion of colonization
- * a comparative thematic discussion of the impact of imperialism
- * extensive coverage and analysis of decolonization.

Very simply, a key publication for the study of colonization.
