The Red Guitar Book of 12-bar Blues Chord Progressions: For any instrument Margaret Stowe

This book studies the 12-bar blues chord progression. Learn how to add chords to the simple blues to create complex jazz and jazz-blues chord progressions, using examples from blues, jazz, jazz-blues, rhythm and blues, and popular music. This book will help you to learn songs faster, play the standard repertoire better, communicate with other musicians better, accompany others better, create your own style, play better solos, write and compose better in blues and jazz-blues styles, and become a better musician. This book is not just for guitar players, but is for any musician interested in improving their skills.
