Goldman Sachs (Penguin Audio Readers, Level 4) Lisa Endlich

Goldman Sachs is one of the biggest and richest banks in the world - and was the last of its type to be owned by the people who worked there. Then, after years of fights, they decided to sell the company. Everybody was shocked, then excited at the chance to become rich, until Goldman Sachs changed its mind. Could they still be trusted with so much of other people's money, if they couldn't be trusted with their own company?
