Here is a flash-card-style learning material for learners of Japanese of any level.

Of the 2136 kanjis in the official Table of Kanji of Common Use??????, this edition covers 200 ones.

You'll see a picture of a kanji with its reading(s) blanked, on it idiom(s) using the title kanji and their English translations are provided. Then you can flip the screen to see the picture with its reading(s) on it.

All the kanjis and their readings of the cards are from the official Table of Common Use as mentioned above, however, the author had to take the liberty of putting the marks shown below for some of them to show which of these kanjis(or some of their readings) are impossible to be dubbed today as "daily use" .
