Your Way Home: The Psychology of Place Inside & Out Lou Stewart

Your Way Home puts an inward spin on Feng Shui, the ancient art of placement with a fresh new psychological approach. Using proven skills developed from NLP (Neuro-Linguistic Programming), this method builds an internal communication network that helps you create nurturing environments. What are our spaces communicating to us and others? And what are we communicating to our spaces? This approach distinguishes itself with many practical exercises for enhancing this communication during the design process. By engaging your mind, body, emotions, and spirit, awareness expands and healing takes place. This book includes basics for beginners, as well as effective tools for the advanced practitioner.
